

Regional Science Forums

Presented by: James Lupini, Staff Development Specialist

This collaborative effort is designed to bring together regional Science leaders to provide opportunities to support curriculum, instruction, and assessment practices that help students learn. To enhance the quality of this collaborative effort, it is important that participants are available to attend all dates listed.

Participants will:

- Share resources and successes with colleagues.
- Learn about “Best Practices” in the region.
- Receive current information from NYSED and other sources.
- Help shape regional professional development.
- Set other initiatives for the group through the course of the year.
